CURRENCY & EMERGENCY

The Polish "Zloty", literally meaning "golden", is today the currency of Poland. The banknotes in current circulation are in 200, 100, 50 and 10 Zloty denominations and coins come in 5, 2 and 1 Zloty, and 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1 Groszy units. Currency can be exchanged in any bank or at an exchange centre called a "Kantor". You have to be aware that Kantors and banks are not opened 24/7. They are usually closed on Saturday evening and whole Sunday so, it is essential to exchange your currency before the weekend. Below you will find the map with Kantors in Lublin Old Town.

EMERGENCY PHONE NUMBERS

There is a universal emergency number 112 which you can dial without any area code. Use it if you would like to call more than 2 services.

IMPORTANT! Emergency calls are free of charge.
