

WSEI University

SCIENTIFIC COOPERATION

INNOVATIVE EDUCATION AND MODERN OFFER

SCIENTIFIC INSTITUTES OF WSEI UNIVERSITY

Scientific Institutes of WSEI University which lead scientific works based on research, development of the innovation, organisation of the conferences, preparaton of scientific articles, doctoral and habilitation proceedings.

The scientific works are conducted by the following institutes:

- Institute of Public Administration and Business,
- Institute of Computer Science and Innovative Technologies,
- Institute of Psychology and Human Sciences.

WSEI UNIVERSITY - KEY RESEARCHERS

TOMASZ WOŁOWIEC

tomasz.wolowiec@wsei.lublin.pl

PhD of Economics in public finance and tax law (PhD. 2001); PhD of philosophies in Social Science (PhD.2013); Habilitation (DsC. 2014). Specialist (project implementation area) in the field of public finance and local government, tax law, financial management, audit and internal control, sustainable development and economic policy tax and management control as well as applied managerial techniques in management. Author, co-author and manager of numerous scientific and research projects on national and foreign scale as well as expert opinions and analyses for the public and private sector.

TOMASZ RYMARCZYK

tomasz.rymarczyk@wsei.lublin.pl

PhD of Science in the field of engineering and technical sciences, University Professor. He specializes in technical information technology and telecommunications. Head of the Institute of Computer Science and Innovative Technologies and the Doctoral School of the WSEI University. He is a manager and expert in several research and investment projects (i.a., Horizon 2020 or projects funded by the National Centre for Research and Development). He actively cooperates with businesses and scientific institutions, both in Poland and abroad, he conducts research, develops innovative solutions, prepares the implementation of modern technologies.

KATARZYNA MARKIEWICZ

katarzyna.markiewicz@wsei.lublin.pl

PhD of Psychology, university professor. Research interests: procrastination, development in the full life cycle, and autism. Head of the Institute of Psychology; President of the Lublin Branch of the Polish Psychological Association, a member of the European Association of Developmental Psychology, and the Polish Association of Human Development Psychology. She cooperates with scientific associations both in Poland and abroad. She publishes in important scientific journals (e.g. Journal of Autism and Developmental Disorders, Current Issues in Personality Psychology). She published more than 100 scientific publications.

COOPERATION

THE INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION OF WSEI UNIVERSITY IS BASED ON TWO MAIN UNITS OF THE UNIVERSITY

CENTRE OF PROJECTS and INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION – main goals:

- development and implementation of the projects co-financed by European Union,
- preparation of international mobilities of WSEI students and staff,
- strengthening the network of academic partners and employers' networks of the university,
- supporting various types of University's activities in the field of internationalisation,
- adjusting university services that address the foreign student needs,
- exchange of the good practices recognised in Europe,
- supporting the development of academic staff skills in the field of the international cooperation,
- stimulating creativity and increasing competences and skills among academic staff, students and graduates,
- supporting the internationalization of the university.

COOPERATION OFFER

- international research activities
- development of the joint projects proposals
- visiting professors
- scientific articles
- doctoral studies
- joint degree programmes

WSEI UNIVERSITY - KEY RESEARCHERS

MONIKA BARYŁA-MATEJCZUK

monika.baryla@wsei.lublin.pl

PhD - a psychologist, professor in the Psychoprophylaxis and Psychological Support Unit of WSEI University. Her scientific work and practice focus on the prevention, educational psychology and psychology of individual differences. The main line of her research is environmental sensitivity (differential sustainability, sensory processing sensitivity). Author of the book "Non-routine Teachers. Psychological correlates of extraordinary activities presented by teachers", "Supporting the development of Highly Sensitive Children". Trainer, psychoeducator, EFT therapist. An expert in the high sensitivity, author of questionnaires for measuring sensitivity in children.

ŁUKASZ WOJCIECHOWSKI

lukasz.wojciechowski@wsei.lublin.pl

PhD of Economics in public finance and tax law (PhD. 2001); PhD of philosophies in Social Science (PhD.2013); Habilitation (DsC. 2014). Specialist (project implementation area) in the field of public finance and local government, tax law, financial management, audit and internal control, sustainable development and economic policy tax and management control as well as applied managerial techniques in management. Author, co-author and manager of numerous scientific and research projects on national and foreign scale as well as expert opinions and analyses for the public and private sector.

WSEI University

4 Projektowa Street
20-209 Lublin

phone: +48 81 749 17 77
kancelaria@wsei.lublin.pl

www.wsei.lublin.pl
www.international.wsei.eu/en

Admission Office Warsaw Branch

14/16 Twarda Street
00-105 Warszawa

phone: +48 502 616 408
rekrutacja.warszawa@wsei.eu

WSEI Welcome Center

4 Projektowa Street
20-209 Lublin

WhatsApp: +48 519 464 728
studyenglish@eiu.edu.pl